Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 11b	It has taken hundreds of man hours to database income and expenses and to complete and double-check the tax forms prior to filing. The process is completed by 5 of the board members plus executive committee members.
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 12c	We have established not only a disclosure policy, but also strict fiscal rules which all directors, officers, committee members, volunteers, are required to read and sign. Our fiscal rules include a written conflict of interest policy, setting forth procedures for handling all matters that come before the board of directors in which the persons above have, or may have, an interest. In such cases, those matters are discussed in their absence and when voted on, they abstain. The same is true in respect of other members of the board. We regularly monitor expenditures, bank records, phone records, etc. The board of directors is charged with keeping a global view of each individual involved and, if necessary, will utilize net searches, etc., to determine if there is non-compliance. We also note if there are conflicts of interest other than financial. The board will review any such situations that might occur.
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 15	We did not compensate any officers or employees.

Return Reference	Explanation
Schedule R, Part V, Line 2	FOTCM is a religious organization, an offshoot of the research of QFG. QFG acts as Fiscal Agent for FOTCM. The two organizations also work hand in hand on many projects, share office space, equipment, volunteers, board members, etc. It is simply more economical and time effective for the two organizations to do this in respect of the co-relation of many research activities. It should be noted that FOTCM and QFG managers are careful to keep the income strictly separated for tracking purposes: they each have their own bank accounts.
